

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

SEPTEMBER 19, 2008

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH SEPTEMBER 17, 2008

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that an incident report was distributed on that offense.

Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS

COUNTYWIDE NEWS:

VOLUNTEERS IN POLICE SERVICE/ NATIONAL CHILD PASSENGER SAFETY WEEK

*Are you interested in saving the lives of children? Do you have some spare time and an interest in working together with members of the public safety community to fill an important need? If so, consider becoming a Volunteer In Police Service (VIP) with the Fairfax County Police Department's new Child Passenger Safety Team. The police department is highlighting this new program as officers prepare for increased enforcement and educational efforts during National Child Passenger Safety Week September 21-27. New volunteers will attend a mandatory training session at the Fairfax County Criminal Justice Academy and learn all they need to know to inspect children's safety seats, booster seats, belts and harnesses. They will work side-by-side with sworn officers and traffic safety experts to become certified in child passenger safety seat inspection. According to Child Safety Seat Coordinator, Master Police Officer Beth Benham, there is a critical need for volunteers. "We established this new program in hopes that we'll be better able to meet the needs of our residents," she said. "Child safety devices can be confusing, and may take some time and attention for parents and care-givers; our hope is that our new volunteers will empower others to pay close attention to these devices, and their requirements to meet the needs of their growing families." Child passenger safety is a high priority in Fairfax County. In 2007, there were more than 3,400 inspections; so far in 2008, there have been 2,400. Parents and care-givers are encouraged to have their child safety seat checked on Friday, September 26, from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. at the Babies R Us on Metro Tech Drive in Chantilly. To learn more about child passenger safety or child safety seat inspection locations, check out www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/police30a.hmm or contact MPO Beth Benham at 703-280-0567. To volunteer with the Fairfax County Police Department VIPs program or have an interest in learning more about the new Child Passenger Safety Team, please contact VIPs coordinator Donna Spiewak at 703-280-0524 or donna.spiewak@fairfaxcounty.gov.

CRIME PREVENTION MESSAGE

*Following the abduction and tragic death of Barbara "Bobbie" Bosworth, 60, on Saturday, September 13, in Prince William County, the Fairfax County Police Department is offering residents the opportunity to learn more about personal safety and crime prevention. The public is invited to attend a community meeting on Tuesday, September 23 at Crestwood Elementary School, 6010 Hanover Avenue, in Springfield from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. The department is reaching out to the community, offering safety presentations and increasing public awareness of safety precautions that may prevent them from being victimized. "While there is no way to prevent all crime from occurring, we want to work closely with the public to empower them with information; the most effective tool we know of," said Captain Erin Schaible, Commander of the Franconia District Police Station. To request a safety presentation from a Crime Prevention Officer, contact the Fairfax County Police Department at 703-246-4564. Police caution anyone shopping or doing errands to consider the following:

- Attend the community meeting at Crestwood Elementary School to learn more personal safety issues.
- Avoid shopping alone. Traveling in groups of two or more significantly improves chances of staying safe.
- Be alert when leaving businesses.
- Trust your instincts. If you feel something is wrong, or suspicious, take action. If someone approaches you and you feel uncomfortable, move or ask for assistance.
- Stand tall and display confidence. Walk with purpose, scan the area around you and make eye contact with others.
- Carry a cellular phone.
- Shop before dark and always park in well-lit areas.
- Have keys in hand before returning to your vehicle.
- As you approach the car, check to see if anyone is hiding underneath or inside. If you are concerned for any reason, simply walk past your car and call for help.
- Report any suspicious activity or person(s) to the Fairfax County Police Department at 703-691-2131. For more information about these and other personal safety tips, log onto www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police
